1. ADVERT

Assistant Coroner for North London

Salary – fee paid, £ 400 per day. [in line with the JNC Coroners Circular 63]

Closing date: [30 September 2020 1600 – approx. 4 weeks after the publication]

Haringey Council is seeking to appoint a new Assistant Coroner to support the Senior across the full range of coroner duties in order to deliver a high-quality coroner service to the people of North London.

About the post:

Haringey Council is looking for an exceptional candidate with excellent proven organisational, management and efficiency skills, as well as experience of exercising sound judgement and communicating effectively.

You will be required to demonstrate knowledge and experience of coroner law and have proven skills in conducting investigations and an understanding of court procedure. You will also need to demonstrate the excellent communication and interpersonal skills necessary to deal with sensitive situations.

The successful candidate will be required to carry out the duties and responsibilities of a coroner as defined in the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 and associated rules and regulations and as further described in various guidance issued by the Chief Coroner.

These are fee paid positions although they are likely to involve a regular commitment, which is to be agreed between the assistant coroner, senior coroner and the local authority. You will be expected on occasion to be available to assist on an out of hours rota system.

The Chief Coroner and the Lord Chancellor would expect an assistant coroner to offer a minimum of 15 sitting days each financial year. However, it is recognised that there is a variance of workload in each area.

Who can apply:

The successful candidate will be a barrister or a solicitor or Fellow of the Institute of Legal Executives and satisfy the judicial-appointment eligibility condition which means they will have 5 years of experience whilst holding that qualification. They will be under the age of 70 and be subject to the appointment and eligibility conditions within the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 (s.23 and Schedule 3).

Statutory terms of the appointment:

Once a Coroner is appointed they are then a Judicial Office holder until they reach the age of 70 years (compulsory retirement age) unless they choose to resign or are removed by the Lord Chief Justice or Lord Chancellor prior to their 70th birthday.

How to apply:

The candidate pack is available here: Clerk.Inquests@hmc-northlondon.co.uk

If you wish to have an informal discussion or arrange a visit, please contact Rebecca Smith Court Manager, Clerk.Inquests@hmc-northlondon.co.uk

Suitably qualified applicants are requested to email their CV and supporting statement to Clerk.Inquests@hmc-northlondon.co.uk

Notification

The vacancy for this post has been notified to the Chief Coroner and Lord Chancellor (as required by statute).

2. CORONER SERVICE INFORMATION

Area information

The North London coroner area is the largest in London with a current population of around 1.6 million.

There are approximately 3,200 cases referred to the senior coroner. Post mortem examinations are conducted at Brent, Barnet and Harrow Public Mortuary and Haringey Public Mortuary by NHS, independent pathologists. In 2020 370 inquests were held.

There are three acute hospitals, as well as several community hospitals

Daily Operations and accommodation

The service is located in dedicated accommodation, including offices and court in Barnet and remotely as a virtual support office system.

The Senior Coroner, the assistant coroners, Court manager and Receptionist are Haringey Council appointments based at the court.. Eight coroner's officers are employed by the Met Police this includes the Met Manager.

Accommodation, contracts, tendering, finance and support staff are managed by the court manager – apart from the Finance officer who works centrally at the local authority with the Director of Service.

The administrative support staff are responsible for answering incoming calls from the public on weekdays 8am – 4pm.

3. JOB SUMMARY

The Role of the coroner:

- Coroners are independent judicial office holders. When made aware that a body or bodies of deceased persons lie within the coroner area, the coroner is responsible for conducting investigations and holding inquests when required (with or without a jury) into deaths to determine who the deceased was, when and where the deceased came by his or her death and how that death occurred. A referral is made to the coroner when there is reason to suspect that:
 - i. The deceased died a violent or unnatural death;
 - ii. The cause of death is unknown; or
 - iii. The deceased died while in custody or otherwise in state detention.
- Conducting investigations of this kind will include where appropriate directing pathologists and others to determine these answers. Coroners also have a duty to produce Prevention of Future Death reports should an investigation give rise to concerns about future deaths occurring from the circumstances that caused the death. Coroners also deal with claims for treasure when required in accordance with statutory regulations and guidance.

The overview of the role of an assistant coroner:

- To support the Senior Coroner [and Area Coroner] in providing a high quality coroner service that puts the bereaved at the heart of the process. This includes preparing for any significant emergencies which may occur and to be available to assist with 24 hour availability on a rota basis.

Assistant coroner Role Responsibilities and Assessment criteria

Assimilating and clarifying information

As an assistant coroner you will be expected to be able to quickly assimilate information to identify essential issues, seeking clarification where necessary so a clear understanding of this information is gained. This will include possessing the ability to explain legal and medical terms to people from non-legal or non-medical backgrounds.

Assistant coroners must work constructively with members of the coronial team and interact well with bereaved families and external stakeholders (e.g. relatives, police officers, medical personnel, mortuary staff, Registrars, witnesses and the media). Where necessary they assist the senior coroner to engage with the local community, for example giving talks and seeking feedback and views.

Assessment criteria:

- 7. Must have knowledge of the extent to which cultural and religious requirements can be met within the constraints of coroner law and practice.
- 8. An ability to drive the service and be receptive to new ideas, reforms and diverse needs.
- 9. Treats people with respect, sensitivity and in a fair manner without discrimination; ensuring the requirements of those with differing needs are properly met.

Communicating effectively

Assistant coroners must be excellent communicators. They must be sensitive and, as far as possible, responsive to the needs and requirements of those who engage with the coroner service and also possess the awareness to manage their expectations of the process. Assistant coroners must be IT literate and provide clear directions to staff on coroner investigations whilst creating a safe, harmonious and effective working environment through co-operative working.

Assessment Criteria:

- 10. Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- 11. Establishes authority and inspires respect and confidence.
- 12. Remains calm and authoritative even when challenged,

Exercising judgement

Assistant coroners must demonstrate integrity and apply independence of mind to make incisive, fair and legally sound decisions.

Assessment criteria
