1. ADVERT

Area Coroner for Exeter and Greater Devon 4 days per week

Salary £104k pro rata pa [in line with the Coroners JNC Circular 63] [or part time equivalent]

Closing date: 10 May 2021

Devon County Council is seeking to appoint an Area Coroner. This is a new post.

About the post:

The Area Coroner will work closely with the Senior Coroner to provide judicial leadership to the coroner team as well as conducting their own coroner investigations and inquests. The Area Coroner is the nominated deputy for the Senior Coroner when the Senior Coroner is absent. The Area Coroner will be expected on occasion to be available out of hours in liaison with the Senior Coroner.

Devon County Council is looking for an exceptional candidate with excellent proven organisational, management and efficiency skills, as well as experience of exercising sound judgement and communicating effectively. In this role, you will work closely with the Senior Coroner and local authority manager to ensure value for money, performance and financial efficiencies. Collaborative working with the Senior Coroner, local authority, the police and other stakeholders is essential.

You will be required to demonstrate knowledge and experience of coroner law and of basic medicine and have proven skills in conducting investigations and an understanding of court procedure. You will also need to demonstrate the excellent communication and interpersonal skills necessary to deal with sensitive situations.

It is desirable that the successful candidate has proven experience of running or sharing running a coroner's jurisdiction including carrying out investigations, case management, and conducting inquests.

Who can apply:

The successful candidate will be a barrister or a solicitor or Fellow of the Institute of Legal Executives and satisfy the judicial-appointment eligibility condition which means they will have five years of experience whilst holding that qualification. They will be under the age of 70, have experience of working as an Assistant Coroner or Area Coroner and be subject to the appointment and eligibility conditions within the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 \(s.23 and Schedule 3\).

Statutory Terms of the Appointment:

Once a Coroner is appointed they are then a Judicial Office holder until they reach the age of 70 years (compulsory retirement age) unless they choose to resign or are removed by the Lord Chief Justice or Lord Chancellor prior to their 70th birthday.

How to apply:

Suitably qualified applicants are requested to email their CV and their supporting statement to: jan.shadbolt@devon.gov.uk

If you wish to have an informal discussion or arrange a visit, please contact Rosalie Robison, Crown Services Officer, on 01392 383042.

Notification

The vacancy for this post has been notified to the Chief Coroner and Lord Chancellor (as required by statute).

2. CORONER SERVICE INFORMATION

Area information

The Exeter and Greater Devon coroner area includes an area of 2,083 square miles with a current population of around 589,300. Within the stunning county of Devon which has great contrasts, with two beautiful coastlines, two National Parks and five official Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Bordering counties are: Cornwall, Somerset and Dorset. Devon has two Unitary Authorities Plymouth and Torbay who support the neighbouring coroner jurisdiction of Plymouth and South Devon.

The number of deaths registered annually is 8943 with approximately 2425 cases (27%) referred to the senior coroner. Post mortem examinations are conducted at North Devon and Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital Trusts by hospital pathologists. In 2019 249 inquests were held (10%) and 830 post-mortem examinations (34%). The Senior Coroner is expected to aim to keep post-mortem levels to around 30% of reported deaths or below where possible.

The coroner area contains sections of the M5 motorway as well as several major A-roads, main rail lines to/from London and an airport. There is also an airfield used for air shows, commercial aviation, gliding and parachute clubs. There are two prisons - Exeter Prison is a Category B prison which also has a regional palliative care unit and Dartmoor Prison is a category C prison; there are also two mental health units. Within the jurisdiction we have two military bases and much military training takes place on Dartmoor and Woodbury Common.

There are two acute hospitals, North Devon District Hospital and Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital as well as several community hospitals.

Daily Operations and accommodation

The Area Coroner will be based in the coroner's office in County Hall, Topsham Road, Exeter, EX2 4QD. Office opening hours are 9am-5pm.

The administration centre for the service is located in dedicated accommodation within County Hall and the Coroners Court is held within the Committee Suite at County Hall, either in the main council chamber or the large meeting rooms. Inquests are opened with dates set for inquest hearings, where we can within the required six months. During the past 12 months, the area as with others, has experienced delays due to the COVID-19 pandemic due to the cessation of jury inquests. Recovery plans are in place and our first jury inquest took place in April.

Seven coroner's officers are employed by the Devon and Cornwall police authority in addition there is a Coroner's Officers manager. The Senior Coroner and Assistant Coroners are supported by 4 full time and 2 part time administrative staff employed by Devon County Council. There is also a Coroner Service Manager who assists the Coroner in all aspects of contracts, budgets and staffing.

The Coronial team are co-located with the senior coroner.

3. JOB SUMMARY

The Role of the coroner:

- Coroners are independent judicial office holders. When made aware that a body or bodies of deceased persons lie within the coroner area, the coroner is responsible for conducting investigations and holding inquests when required (with or without a jury) into deaths to determine who the deceased was, when and where the deceased came by his or her death and how that death occurred. A referral is made to the coroner when there is reason to suspect that:
 - i. The deceased died a violent or unnatural death;
 - ii. The cause of death is unknown; or
 - iii. The deceased died while in custody or otherwise in state detention.

- Conducting investigations of this kind will include where appropriate directing pathologists and others to determine these answers. Coroners also have a duty to produce Prevention of Future Death reports should an investigation give rise to concerns about future deaths occurring from the circumstances that caused the death. Coroners also deal with claims for treasure when required in accordance with statutory regulations and guidance.

The overview of the role of an area coroner:

- The Area Coroner supports the Senior Coroner in providing a high quality coroner service that puts the bereaved at the heart of the process. The Area Coroner deputises for the Senior Coroner when the Senior Coroner is absent and works with the Senior Coroner to ensure that the day to day running of the jurisdiction takes place to the highest standard. This includes preparing for any significant emergencies which may occur and [where appropriate] to be available to assist with 24 hour availability on a rota basis as well as holding regular team meetings and liaising with stakeholders. The Area Coroner will assist the Senior Coroner in submitting annual returns to the Chief Coroner and Lord Chancellor as and when required.
