2. CORONER SERVICE INFORMATION

Area information

The East Riding and Hull Coroner area includes a combined area of Hull city and the shire county of the East Riding, which is in total 958 square miles with a current population of around 656,000 residents. The two areas are administered separately as local authorities, however a combined coronial area, with Hull City Council as the lead authority.

The population of the Hull city was estimated to be 260,200 in 2016. Hull covers a total surface area of approximately 27.59 square miles (71.45 square kilometres). In combination with the overall population, this brings the population density to about 9,030 residents per square mile (3,486 residents per square kilometre).

As of the 2011 Census, the population of Hull was mostly White British, comprising 89.7% of the population. 4.1% of the population identified as Other White, followed by 2.3% Chinese and Other Races, 1.3% Mixed Race, 1.2% Black, and 1.1% South Asian, and 0.3% White Irish. The census also found that just 3% of the residents in Hull were born outside of the UK.

The city also has a high rate of unemployment, as reported during the 2011 Census. Almost half of the residents living in the city rent their homes, exceeding the national average of renters.

The East Riding of Yorkshire covers 930 sq mi and has a population of 335,049 a density of 1.4 people per hectare.

The East Riding has a larger than average number of residents aged 40 and above. There is a particularly strong deficit in the number of young adults. The East Riding is characterised by a high employment rate and a relatively low unemployment level. The overall unemployment rate is 4.3%, which is 1.2 percentage points lower than the national average. However, there are unemployment hotspots in Bridlington, Goole and Withernsea. ¹The district is one of the lowest non white populations with the census reporting 98.8% of the inhabitants being white.

Coroner area activity - The number of deaths registered annually is 4,800 with approximately 2637 cases (55%) referred to the Senior Coroner. Post mortem examinations are conducted at the Hull University Teaching Hospital Trusts by Hospital Pathologists, using invasive examinations, but considering digital scanning in the future. In 2020, 320 inquests were held and 903 post-mortem examinations.

The coroner area contains sections of the M62 motorway as well as several major A-roads. There are 3 prisons – including one adult male detention centre.

There are 4 acute hospitals, Hull Royal Infirmary, Hull Children’s Hospital, Castle Hill Hospital, Cottingham, Goole & District Hospital.

Daily Operations and accommodation

The service is located in dedicated accommodation, including offices and 2 court facilities at the Guildhall in Hull. The coroner’s court, which is next to the coroner’s offices, is available Monday-Friday allowing inquests to be opened quickly with dates set for inquest hearings, usually within the required six months. The large court room has a digital court facility to accommodate remote participants.

9 Coroner’s Officers are employed by Hull City Council. In addition there is a Coroner’s Office Manager, and Support Service Manager who is also the Superintendent Registrar for the Hull district. The Senior Coroner, the Assistant Coroners and Coroner’s Officers are supported by 3 administrative staff employed by Hull City Council.

Accommodation, contracts, tendering, finance and support staff are managed by the Coroner Support Service Manager, who is also employed by the Council.

All staff are co-located with the Senior Coroner.

3. JOB SUMMARY

The Role of the Coroner:

- Coroners are independent judicial office holders. When made aware that a body or bodies of deceased persons lie within the coroner area, the Coroner is responsible for conducting investigations and holding inquests when required (with or without a jury) into deaths to determine who the deceased was, when and where the deceased came by his or her death and how that death occurred. A referral is made to the Coroner when there is reason to suspect that:
 - i. The deceased died a violent or unnatural death;
 - ii. The cause of death is unknown; or
 - iii. The deceased died while in custody or otherwise in state detention.
- Conducting investigations of this kind will include where appropriate directing Pathologists and others to determine these answers. Coroners also have a duty to produce Prevention of Future Death reports should an investigation give rise to concerns about future deaths occurring from the circumstances that caused the death.

Coroners also deal with claims for treasure when required in accordance with statutory regulations and guidance.

The overview of the role of an Area Coroner:

- The Area Coroner supports the Senior Coroner in providing a high quality coroner service that puts the bereaved at the heart of the process. The Area Coroner deputises for the Senior Coroner when the Senior Coroner is absent and works with the Senior Coroner to ensure that the day to day running of the jurisdiction takes place to the highest standard. This includes preparing for any significant emergencies which may occur and [where appropriate] to be available to assist with 24 hour availability on a rota basis as well as holding regular team meetings and liaising with stakeholders. The Area Coroner will assist the Senior Coroner in submitting annual returns to the Chief Coroner and Lord Chancellor as and when required.
