2. CORONER SERVICE INFORMATION

Area information

The West Yorkshire Eastern Coroner's Area covers the geographical areas of Leeds, Wakefield and Pontefract with a population of approximately 1.1m people and has within its area 6 Prison establishments, 2 Teaching Hospitals and 5 NHS Regional Centres of Excellence.

During 2019 the Coroner's Office dealt with 3822 reported deaths, 806 non-jury inquests, 6 jury inquests and 1268 post mortems. In 2021 the Service has concluded 20 Jury Inquests and will pass 800 concluded Inquests for the calendar year.

The West Yorkshire Eastern Coroner's Service Area shares its boundaries with West Yorkshire Western, South Yorkshire Eastern, South Yorkshire Western and North Yorkshire Western.

Further, due to Health Service re-organisations, the Eastern Area Health Services currently receive patients requiring Acute services who are residents within the Western boundary. These cases which ultimately result in being referred to the Eastern Area Coroner are the more complex cases further increasing the complex workload of the Eastern Area .

The number of deaths registered annually in the area averages 10,000 with approximately (an average over the previous 5 years) of 4000 deaths referred to the Senior Coroner. Routine post mortem examinations are conducted at the Leeds and Mid Yorkshire Hospital Trusts. Forensic post mortems are conducted by Forensic Pathologists at Bradford Public Mortuary and Forensic Science Centre. The Senior Coroner is expected to aim to keep post-mortem levels to 30% of reported deaths or below.

The Coroner Area contains sections of the M1, M62 and A1 motorways as well as several major A-roads, main rail lines to/from Leeds and Wakefield and the Leeds and Bradford International Airport

Daily Operations and accommodation

The service is located in dedicated accommodation, including offices and 2 dedicated courts in Wakefield. The Service will be relocating to new modern premises within Wakefield City Centre in Autumn 2022. which will be able to accommodate 3 Courts working simultaneously to meet service demands.

The coroner's court, which is next to the coroner's offices, is available Monday-Friday allowing inquests to be opened quickly with dates set for inquest hearings, usually within the required six months. The average time from opening to hearing is currently 27 weeks.

11 coroner's officers are employed by the Chief Constable of West Yorkshire. In addition there is a senior coroner's officer. The Senior Coroner, the Area Coroner and Assistant Coroners and coroner's officers are supported by 12 administrative staff employed by Wakefield Council.

Accommodation, contracts, tendering, finance and support staff are managed by the coroner's services manager, who is employed by the Council in the Legal and Governance Department.

The administration staff are co-located with the Senior Coroner and Area Coroner the Coroner's Officers are located within West Yorkshire Police estate in Wakefield.

3. JOB SUMMARY

The Role of the coroner:

- Coroners are independent judicial office holders. When made aware that a body or bodies of deceased persons lie within the coroner area, the coroner is responsible for conducting investigations and holding inquests when required (with or without a jury) into deaths to determine who the deceased was, when and where the deceased came by his or her death and how that death occurred. A referral is made to the coroner when there is reason to suspect that:
 - i. The deceased died a violent or unnatural death;
 - ii. The cause of death is unknown; or
 - iii. The deceased died while in custody or otherwise in state detention.
- Conducting investigations of this kind will include where appropriate directing pathologists and others to determine these answers. Coroners also have a duty to produce Prevention of Future Death reports should an investigation give rise to concerns about future deaths occurring from the circumstances that caused the death. Coroners also deal with claims for treasure when required in accordance with statutory regulations and guidance.

The overview of the role of an area coroner:

- The area coroner supports the Senior Coroner in providing a high quality coroner service that puts the bereaved at the heart of the process. The area coroner deputises for the senior coroner when the senior coroner is absent and works with the senior coroner to ensure that the day to day running of the jurisdiction takes place to the highest standard. This includes preparing for any significant emergencies which may occur and [where appropriate] to be available to assist with 24 hour availability on a rota basis as well as holding regular team meetings and liaising with stakeholders.
