

BRIGHTON AND HOVE CORONER SERVICE INFORMATION

Area information

The Brighton and Hove coroner area includes an area of 8,288 Hectares with a current population of around 277,200. (as at census 2021) The majority of the population lives within the city boundaries. Comparatively to England, Brighton and Hove has a high proportion of student residents and houses of multiple occupation with an age demographic lower than the national average. This leads to a transient population within the city. Situated on the English Channel coast bordering counties include: West Sussex and East Sussex.

The number of deaths registered annually is 2,594 with approximately 1,143 cases (44%) referred to the senior coroner. Post mortem examinations are conducted at Brighton and Hove City Mortuary, Woodvale by local pathologists. Within Brighton and Hove City standard post mortem examinations services are available with local mortuary teams able to accommodate visiting pathologists for Forensic post mortems. CT scanning can be arranged through colleagues at Brighton and Sussex Medical School. All other specialist post mortem examinations such as paediatric, neuro, cardio etc are conducted in either Southampton or London following agreement with local teams. Medical Examiners are operational with UHSFT. In 2020, 210 inquests were held (18%) and 478 post-mortem examinations (42%).

Brighton and Hove is a popular all year round tourist destination as well as a venue for political party conferences and other significant events including first class cricket and premiership football. Venues of note are Brighton racecourse, the Amex stadium, Sussex County Cricket Ground, Brighton and Hove seafronts and a number of conference and events venues around city. The coroner area contains sections of the A27, A259 and A23 all major A-roads, main rail lines to/from London.

There is one acute hospital, incorporating: The South East trauma centre; Specialist Neurosurgical unit for the area; Teaching hospital with a medical school; Specialist neo-natal unit (Trevor Mann); Specialist Renal, HIV and Cardiac units. As well as two private hospitals and a large hospice. In addition to this Sussex Partnership Foundation NHS Trust operate a number of mental health facilities.

Brighton and Hove is densely populated with busy transport services.

Daily Operations and accommodation

The service is located in dedicated accommodation, offices and court facilities are provided at Woodvale Coroners Office. The coroner's court, is available Monday-Friday allowing inquests to be opened quickly with dates set for inquest hearings, usually within the required six months. The average time from opening to hearing is currently 20 weeks.

Five coroner's officers are employed by Sussex Police. The Senior Coroner, the assistant coroners and coroner's officers are supported by two administrative staff employed by Brighton and Hove City Council.

Accommodation, contracts, tendering, finance and support staff are managed by the Head of Life Events, who is employed by the Council in the Bereavement Services department.

Administrative staff are co-located with the senior coroner in Woodvale and Coroner's Officers are hybrid workers based in Brighton within Police premises.

The administrative support staff are responsible for answering incoming calls from the public on weekdays between 9am – 5pm.

3. JOB SUMMARY

The Role of the coroner:

- Coroners are independent judicial office holders. When made aware that a body or bodies of deceased persons lie within the coroner area, the coroner is responsible for conducting investigations and holding inquests when required (with or without a jury) into deaths to determine who the deceased was, when and where the deceased came by his or her death and how that death occurred. A referral is made to the coroner when there is reason to suspect that:
 - i. The deceased died a violent or unnatural death;
 - ii. The cause of death is unknown; or
 - iii. The deceased died while in custody or otherwise in state detention.
- Conducting investigations of this kind will include where appropriate directing pathologists and others to determine these answers. Coroners also have a duty to produce Prevention of Future Death reports should an investigation give rise to concerns about future deaths occurring from the circumstances that caused the death. Coroners also deal with claims for treasure when required in accordance with statutory regulations and guidance.

The overview of the role of an area coroner:

- The area coroner supports the Senior Coroner in providing a high-quality coroner service that puts the bereaved at the heart of the process. The area coroner deputises for the senior coroner when the senior coroner is absent and works with the senior coroner to ensure that the day to day running of the jurisdiction takes place to the highest standard. This includes preparing for any significant emergencies which may occur and [where appropriate] to be available to assist with 24 hour availability on a rota basis as well as holding regular team meetings and liaising with stakeholders. The area coroner will assist the senior coroner in submitting annual returns to the Chief Coroner and Lord Chancellor as and when required.
