1. ADVERT

Senior Coroner for East Riding and Hull

Salary £150,387 pa

Closing date: midnight on 30th January 2026.

Hull City Council is seeking to appoint a new Senior Coroner to replace the current post-holder who retires in May 2026.

About the Post:

The Senior Coroner stands at the head of the local coroner service and statutory coroner area and takes the lead on coroner work and will be expected to conduct inquests which are difficult or complex or will be likely to attract significant publicity.

The number of reported deaths pa is 2378 (2024 data) Accordingly we appoint our senior coroner with a salary on a full-time basis.

The salary will include payment for out of hours availability by agreement.

Hull City Council is looking for an exceptional candidate with excellent proven organisational, management and efficiency skills, as well as experience of exercising sound judgement and communicating effectively. You will work closely with the local authority to ensure the running of an efficient coroner service that puts the bereaved at the heart of the service. Collaborative working with the local authority, the police and other stakeholders is essential.

You will be required to demonstrate knowledge and experience of coroner law and of basic medicine, have proven skills in conducting investigations and an understanding of court procedure. You will also need to demonstrate the excellent communication and interpersonal skills necessary to deal with sensitive situations.

It is essential that the successful candidate has proven experience of running or sharing running a coroner's jurisdiction including carrying out investigations, case management, and conducting inquests.

Who can apply:

The successful candidate will be a barrister or a solicitor or Fellow of the Institute of Legal Executives and satisfy the judicial-appointment eligibility condition which means they will have five years of experience whilst holding that qualification. They will be under the age of 75, have experience of working as a Senior Coroner, area coroner or assistant coroner and be subject to the appointment and eligibility conditions within the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 \(s.23 and Schedule 3\).

Statutory terms of the Appointment:

Once a Coroner is appointed they are then a Judicial Office holder until they reach the age of 75 years (compulsory retirement age) unless they choose to resign or are removed by the Lord Chief Justice or Lord Chancellor prior to their 75th birthday.

How to apply:

Please refer to the attached candidate information pack for full details.

Suitably qualified applicants are requested to email their CV and their application to Leisha Barcoe, Executive Support to Hull City Council CEO Leisha.Barcoe@hullcc.gov.uk.

If you wish to have an informal discussion or arrange a visit, please contact Professor Paul Marks on tel number 07976 164 880.

Notification

The vacancy for this post has been notified to the Chief Coroner and Lord Chancellor (as required by statute).

2. CORONER SERVICE INFORMATION

Area information

The East Riding and Hull coroner area includes an area of just over 950 square miles. 930 square miles being the East Riding, making it one of the largest unitary authorities in the country. With a much smaller coverage of 28 square miles for Kingston Upon Hull.

With current combined population of around 920,000 residents, this coroner area faces the challenges of a densely populated city of Hull with a median age of 35 years, combined with a large rural area of the East Riding with an aging population due to migration by retired people, particularly to coastal areas.

The number of deaths registered annually is 6868 [2024/25 data] with approximately 2378 cases referred to the senior coroner (2024 data). Post mortem examinations are conducted at the Hull University Teaching Hospital, by NHS pathologists. There is no local CT scanning currently, however the NHS Trust is considering this as a development project in the new year. The Medical Examiner Service is based at the Hull Royal Infirmary. In 2024, 433 inquests were held and 933 post-mortem examinations undertaken.

The coroner area contains sections of the A63/M62 motorway as well as several major A-roads, main rail lines to/from London. The area has 3 prisons – HMP Full Sutton is a Category A prison, HMP Humber includes a young offenders provision, and the third being HMP Hull Prison.

There is one acute hospital, The Hull University Teaching Hospital (HUTH) in Hull, as well as the Castle Hill Hospital in the East Riding, and several community hospitals, including secure mental health units.

Further information about the East Riding and Hull Coroners Office can be found at Home – East Riding and Hull Coroners Service

Daily Operations and accommodation

The service is located in dedicated accommodation, at the Guildhall, Hull. The coroner's court, which is next to the coroner's offices, is available Monday-Friday allowing inquests to be opened quickly with dates set for inquest hearings, usually within the required six months. The average time from opening to hearing is currently 35 weeks.

Hull City Council manage and deliver the service in support of the Senior Coroner, on behalf of two local authorities, Hull City Council and East Riding of Yorkshire Council. 6 Coroners Officers are employed by Hull City Council. In addition there is a Coroners Officer Team Leader, and Coroner's Court and Practice Manager. The Senior Coroner, the assistant coroners and coroner's officers are supported by 8 administrative staff employed by Hull City Council.

Accommodation, contracts, tendering, finance and support staff are managed by the Coroner's Support Manager, who is also employed by Hull City Council.

All staff are co-located with the senior coroner at the Guildhall in Hull.

The administrative support staff are responsible for answering incoming calls from the public on weekdays 9am – 5pm.

3. JOB SUMMARY

The role of the coroner:

- Coroners are independent judicial office holders. When made aware that a body or bodies of deceased persons lie within the coroner area, the coroner is responsible for conducting investigations and holding inquests when required (with or without a jury) into deaths to determine who the deceased was, when and where the deceased came by his or her death and how that death occurred. A referral is made to the coroner when there is reason to suspect that:
 - i. The deceased died a violent or unnatural death;
 - ii. The cause of death is unknown; or
 - iii. The deceased died while in custody or otherwise in state detention.
- Conducting investigations of this kind will include where appropriate directing pathologists and others to determine these answers. Coroners also have a duty to produce Prevention of Future Death reports should an investigation give rise to concerns about future deaths occurring from the circumstances that caused the death. Coroners also deal with claims for treasure when required in accordance with statutory regulations and guidance.

Overview of the role of a senior coroner:

The senior coroner stands at the head of the coroner service and leads in that area to ensure that a high quality coroner service is provided to the local community that puts the bereaved at the heart of the process. This includes preparing for any significant emergencies which may occur and [where appropriate] to be available to assist with 24 hour availability on a rota basis as well as holding regular team meetings and liaising with stakeholders. The senior coroner will be responsible for submitting annual returns to the Chief Coroner and Lord Chancellor as and when required. This will include working effectively with the local authority and police authority [where applicable] and to hold regular meetings with both and with local Registrars. The senior coroner acts as the Data Controller for the coroners service, ensuring that all relevant legislation is observed and necessary security measures are put in place to protect against accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration and disclosure of data. The senior coroner oversees the management of all post-decision challenges that are brought within the area to ensure compliance and that the challenge is properly dealt with.

Senior coroner Role Responsibilities and Assessment criteria

Assimilating and clarifying information

Senior coroners are expected to be able to quickly assimilate information to identify essential issues, seeking clarification where necessary so a clear understanding of this information is gained. This will include possessing the ability to explain legal and medical terms to people from non-legal or non-medical backgrounds.
