1. ADVERT

Area Coroner for Cornwall & Isles of Scilly

Salary: £102,155 FTE (£61,293 per annum pro-rata 3 days a week)

Closing date: 10 May 2026

Cornwall Council is seeking to appoint an Area Coroner for 3 days a week and this is a new post.

About the post:

The Area Coroner will work closely with the Senior Coroner to provide judicial leadership to the coroner team to provide a high quality coronial service to the residents of Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly, as well as conducting their own coroner investigations and inquests. The Area Coroner is the nominated deputy for the Senior Coroner when the Senior Coroner is absent. The Area Coroner will be expected to be available out of hours on a rota based system.

Cornwall Council is looking for an exceptional candidate with excellent proven organisational, management and efficiency skills, as well as experience of exercising sound judgement and communicating effectively. You will work closely with the local authority to ensure the running of an efficient coroner service that puts the bereaved at the heart of the service. Collaborative working with the local authority, the police and other stakeholders is essential.

You will be required to demonstrate knowledge and experience of coroner law and of basic medicine, have proven skills in conducting investigations and an understanding of court procedure. An excellent communicator, you will need to demonstrate the excellent communication and interpersonal skills necessary to work effectively with a wide range of partners and manage sensitive situations and be passionate about providing an empathic service to bereaved people.

It is desirable that the successful candidate has proven experience of running or sharing running a coroner's jurisdiction including carrying out investigations, case management, and conducting inquests.

Who can apply:

The successful candidate will be a barrister or a solicitor or Fellow of the Institute of Legal Executives and satisfy the judicial-appointment eligibility condition which means they will have five years of experience whilst holding that qualification. They will be under the age of 75, have experience of working as an Assistant Coroner or Area Coroner and be subject to the appointment and eligibility conditions within the Coroners and Justice Act 2009 \(s.23 and Schedule 3\).

Statutory Terms of the Appointment:

Once a Coroner is appointed they are then a Judicial Office holder until they reach the age of 75 years (compulsory retirement age) unless they choose to resign or are removed by the Lord Chief Justice or Lord Chancellor prior to their 75th birthday.

How to apply:

Notification

The vacancy for this post has been notified to the Chief Coroner and Lord Chancellor (as required by statute).

Applications (CV and supporting statement only) must be emailed to Katrina Chirgwin, Coroner's Service Manager at (katrina.chirgwin@cornwall.gov.uk) by midnight on 10th May 2026.

2. CORONER AREA INFORMATION

The Cornwall and Isles of Scilly coronial area has a current population of around 593,000 and the longest coastline of all English counties at 697 km.. Cornwall borders the county of Devon and is an area of many contrasts; with varied landscapes including remote rural, coastal and environmentally sensitive areas, interspersed with villages and historic market towns; where affluence sits alongside some of the most disadvantaged areas in England.

The Isles of Scilly form an archipelago of 140 islands, of which five are inhabited, off the southwestern tip Cornwall. In 1975 the islands were designated as an Area of Outstanding Beauty. The designation covers the entire archipelago, including the uninhabited islands and rocks, and is the smallest such area in the UK.

As an indication of activity levels, Table 1 below sets out the number of death referrals, post mortems and inquests that are currently available for the last 3 years.

Year	Referrals	Post Mortems	Inquests
2024	2,088	1,115	516
2023	2,137	1,116	510
2022	2,304	1,122	480

There are 2 NHS hospitals that are used within this jurisdiction, The Royal Cornwall Hospitals NHS Trust in Truro and University Hospitals Plymouth NHS Trust. Post mortem examinations are conducted at both of these hospital sites and carried out by hospital pathologists. There are no Digital Autopsy scanning facilities in the jurisdiction, and forensic pathology services are undertaken at the Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital. The Medical Examiner Service is operational at both Royal Cornwall and Plymouth NHS Trusts. There are also two acute mental health hospitals in Redruth and Bodmin with some Cornish mental health patients in the east of the county also being treated in Devon. There are no prisons in the Area.

Coronial deaths that occur on the Isles of Scilly are brought to the mainland by the Scillonian if they require a post mortem. These deaths are transported by the coroner's contracted funeral directors to The Royal Cornwall Hospital.

The coroner area contains main rail lines to/from London and an airport. There is also an airfield used for airshows, commercial aviation, gliding and parachute clubs. Within the jurisdiction we have two military bases.

Daily Operations and accommodation

The service is located in dedicated accommodation, including offices and two courts at Pydar House in Truro, which is available Monday-Friday allowing inquests to be opened quickly with dates set for inquest hearings. The average time from opening to hearing is currently 33 weeks.

A Senior Coroner's Officer and a further 7 FTE Coroner's Officers are employed by Devon & Cornwall Police. The Senior Coroner and Assistant Coroners are supported by 5 FTE administrative staff employed by Cornwall Council.

Accommodation, contracts, tendering, finance and the administration staff are managed by the Coroner Service Manager, who is employed by the Council.

All staff are co-located with the Senior and Assistant Coroner's at Pydar House, Truro.

3. JOB SUMMARY

The Role of the Coroner:

Coroners are independent judicial office holders. When made aware that a body or bodies of deceased persons lie within the coroner area, the coroner is responsible for conducting investigations and holding inquests when required (with or without a jury) into deaths to determine who the deceased was, when and where the deceased came by his or her death and how that death occurred. A referral is made to the coroner when there is reason to suspect that:

- i. The deceased died a violent or unnatural death;
- ii. The cause of death is unknown; or
- iii. The deceased died while in custody or otherwise in state detention.

Conducting investigations of this kind will include where appropriate directing pathologists and others to determine these answers. Coroners also have a duty to produce Prevention of Future Death reports should an investigation give rise to concerns about future deaths occurring from the circumstances that caused the death. Coroners also deal with claims for treasure when required in accordance with statutory regulations and guidance.

The overview of the role of an Area Coroner:

The Area Coroner supports the Senior Coroner in providing a high quality coroner service that puts the bereaved at the heart of the process. The Area Coroner deputises for the Senior Coroner when they are absent and works with them to ensure that the day to day running of the jurisdiction takes place to the highest standard. This includes preparing for any significant emergencies which may occur and to be available to assist with 24 hour availability on a rota basis as well as holding regular team meetings and liaising with stakeholders. The Area Coroner will assist the Senior Coroner in submitting annual returns to the Chief Coroner and Lord Chancellor as and when required.

Area Coroner Role Responsibilities and Assessment criteria

Assimilating and clarifying information

As an Area Coroner you will be expected to be able to quickly assimilate information to identify essential issues, seeking clarification where necessary so a clear understanding of this information is gained.
